Subject : National Anthem " Jan Gan Man " Rashtra Gaan be made mandatory on all T.V./ Radio channels in this country with intention to awake patriotism.

Respected Sir,

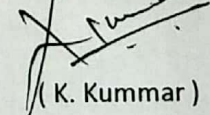

National Anthem Song Jan Gan Man is a soul of India. Jan Gan Man inspire soldiers fighting on boarder. In pre-independence days Jan Gan Man song developed spirit of patriotism and inspire people to raise revolt against Britishers. This National Anthem emerge remembrance of those Shahid desh bhakt (Freedom fighters) who sacrificed their lives for this Nation. In this era of western culture and modernization, the spirit of patriotism is decreasing day by day. There is need to erect patriotism and develop spirit of responsibility towards National Anthem in the mind of youth especially when this nation is surviving under the cloud of terrorism, we would like to put forth suggestion that Jan Gan Man National Anthem be made mandatory on all T.V. Channels, Media and Radio channels in this country. There is need to make aware the Foreign channels to pay respect to India and to pay respect to its National Anthem and if broad casting National Anthem in the morning on all foreign / national/ religious/ non-religious/ commercial T.V. channels made compulsory, it will give good message of patriotism in India to world. This will be a pertinent formula to instigate patriotism in the mind of Indian citizens and enhance pride of this Nation.

One common time in morning be given to all T.V. and Radio channels irrespective of its language irrespective of its category either National channel or International channel as decided by the Govt. All these media should play Rashtra Gaan National Anthem at a time in morning whereby the feeling of patriotism shall pour in the land of this Nation as well as mind of each and every Indian citizen.

If the above proposal materialized, the Nation will never forget Shri Modi ji, Hon. Prime of India and it will put one more feather in the crown of Modi's era.

Jai Hind !

Yours Sincerely,

(K. Kumar)
