To
Hon. Governor of Maharashtra
Raj Bhavan, Mumbai.

Respected Sir,

It gave us great pleasure to have meeting with Your Honour on Friday the 17th April 2015 with the dignitaries of Hyderabad Mr. Gopal Sharma and Mr. Aljapur Srinivas.

We do not have words for expressing our feelings for an exhilarating experience of respect & warm welcome received to a small social worker of NGO like us while entering into Rajyapaal Bhavan and while meeting with Your Honour.

We shall response for your appeal for actively participating Swachha Bharat Abhiyaan you made during the abovesaid meeting. We are just waiting for orders being given by His exgency Governor of Maharashtra's office on the important issue of Swachha Bharat Abhiyaan and as soon as we received the directives from your kind self, we shall start with the campaign of Swachha Bharat Abhiyaan with full strength and devotion. We are proud that we get a humble, intelligent and respectable personality like you as a Governor to our State. We would pray before Almighty for your long life, good health, name and fame Sir.

We shall be highly obliged to you of your kind honour give little contribution for implementation of the important subject raised by our NGO like Searching solution on missing child and anti terrorism movement run by our organization to save our Nation. For this purpose we are in need of your blessings and support.

Soliciting your moral support for our movement we raised with patriotic spirit and welfare of child.

With regards,

Yours Sincerely,

(K. Kummar)

Vikas Chandra Rastogi, IAS

Dear Shri Kummar,

Please refer to your letter dated 17th April, 2015 addressed to the Hon'ble Governor requesting him for participating in Swachha Bharat Abhiyan, missing child and anti-terrorism movement.

In this connection, I am directed to inform you that the Governor has regretted his inability to accede to your request. However, Hon'ble Governor has conveyed his good wishes to the organization.

With regards,

Yours sincerely,

(Vikas Chandra Rastogi)
